O'Connor, O'Connor, Bresee & First has been recognized as a leader in the Capital District and Upstate New York legal communities since our inception nearly 15 years ago. Today, our 15 attorneys are dedicated to providing personal and professional representation in all aspects of civil litigation and appellate work, commercial litigation and bankruptcy matters.

Since our inception, O'Connor, O'Connor, Bresee & First has been devoted to the philosophy that good defense lawyers, and all lawyers, do more than handle the legal aspects of a case; they listen and respond to their client's needs, both personally and professionally. Today, that philosophy continues to drive our attorneys as we provide our clients with the highest caliber legal representation in the most cost-efficient manner.
